

SCENE IN THE COVE

A Few Good Men to arrive on Gallant

by MARIA SPITALE-LEISK

A Few Good Men, the electrifying play that became the legendary Oscar-nominated film, comes to Deep Cove Shaw Theatre in March. A young unyielding lawyer and his team uncover a conspiracy at the highest level while defending their clients accused of murder in this tense, riveting courtroom drama by Academy Award-winner Aaron Sorkin, (The Social Network) and creator of The West Wing and The Newsroom. Directed by Claude A. Giroux for First Impressions Theatre, with stage managing by Janice Howell, A Few Good Men runs March 1 to 17, Wednesday through Saturday at 8 p.m. Tickets are available online at firstimpressionstheatre.com or by calling 604-929-9456. The Deep Cove Shaw Theatre is located at 4360 Gallant Ave.

NEW SAG EXHIBIT AWASH WITH BOLD AND INTRICATE ART

The Seymour Art Gallery's latest exhibition features North Vancouver artist Steve Baylis, who combines a range of unique influences with his own driven spiritual inquiry. Drawing on a personal meditative practice, Baylis' work is informed by his own intuition, memory, experience, and feeling, according to his artist bio. Inspired by principles of theoretical physics, Baylis' bold and intricate paintings both draw viewers in to investigate their rich details and send them back to consider the works as a whole. The pieces are, as the artist describes them, complex expressions of a simple thought. Steve Baylis: Manifestation of Intention runs until Feb. 24, with free Mindful Meditation for beginners on Thursdays from 2 to 3 p.m. More info: seymourartgallery.com

CANADIAN IDOL COMES TO COVE AREA

Multi-instrumentalist, singer-songwriter Stephen Lecky fuses rhythmic guitar, catchy vocals, loop pedal, sax and flute into something you have to see to believe. Music lovers will have the chance on Saturday, Feb. 10 at 7 p.m., when Lecky plays Deep Cove Brewers and Distillers. With only one year of singing under his belt, at 16, Lecky became a Canadian Idol finalist and also appeared on Canada's Got Talent. Lecky continues to make music, write songs and perform on a regular basis at many B.C. casinos and hotel lounges. Deep Cove Brewers and Distillers is located 170-2270 Dollarton Hwy., deepcovecraft.com
