

BRIGHT LIGHTS!

by Paul McGrath

Seymour ceramic show opening

Ceramic artist Susannah Montague was the guest of honour at an opening reception March 10 for her exhibit, Of Things I Can't Unthink, currently showing at the Seymour Art Gallery. A steady stream of friends, family and gallery-goers met with the Bowen Island-based artist at the event. Montague's surreal porcelain pieces are created with a variety of techniques and use symbols to represent death and the transient nature of people's lives. Her show will be on display until April 14 at the gallery, which is located at 4360 Gallant Ave. seymourartgallery.com

Exhibiting artist Susannah Montague with Tallie Thompson

Norm Edwards and Tara Galuska

Seymour Art Gallery director and curator Vanessa Black

"Burnell" and Otis Reckord

Cynthia Nagy with grandchildren Amelia Carnie and Sophia and Sebastien Montague

Erin Melvin, Diane Thomson and Blair Gardener

Nancy and Michael Travis with Brice Montague